THE HELMINGHAM ROSE SUPPORT

In 1984 Lady Tollemache devised this unique support system for her old-fashioned shrub roses in the gardens of Helmingham Hall. The system provides an informal and natural structure for old-fashioned roses which tend to be lax and sprawling. The Helmingham Rose Support also enables shrub roses to produce a greater profusion of blooms because, by tying the new shoots down, sunlight reaches the full length of each stem, enabling growth from top to bottom. After heavy rainfall the rose still retains its shape.

Much admired by fellow gardeners and visitors to the gardens, the Helmingham Rose Support system is now available in kit form with full assembly instructions.

To get the maximum benefit from the Helmingham Rose Support your shrub rose should be at least three years old.

Available in dark green or black.

THE HELMINGHAM ROSE SUPPORT.

"Lady Tollemache's new rose support, her brilliant idea, simple but effective, is the perfect way to have the best display from your old-fashioned roses. Use one and you will be amazed at how better you can see and smell these beautifully formed, highly scented varieties, whether as single specimens or in your mixed borders. The decorative frames will serve you for years"

HELMINGHAM HALL GARDENS

Within a Saxon Moat lies a parterre surrounded by a collection of Hybrid Musk Roses. This leads into the Walled Elizabethan Kitchen Garden, here are unsurpassed herbaceous borders, immaculate vegetables and tunnels of runner beans, sweet peas and gourds.

On the other side of the house, an historical Knot and Herb garden has been planted, with a magnificent collection of shrub roses.

An apple avenue, yew walk spring border and wild garden all contribute to these Listed Grade 1 gardens.

The garden is open from May to September.
